FIELD SYSTEMS IN THE HIGH WEALD

Historic England Project No: 7056

Review 2 MEETING

Warkworth Room Waterhouse Square
London

Wednesday 8TH July 2015

AGENDA

Present:
Sally Marsh (HW AONB), Nicola Bannister (Landscape Archaeologist), Ruth Childs (Landscape Officer KCC) Dave McOmish (HE), Jeremy Lake (HE)

Apologies: Casper Johnson (ESCC)

1.   Discuss Draft Method Statement

   a. Case Studies
   Agree number to be undertaken and which approach

   b. Field Recording Form
   Agree format and content which will lead to the following;

   b. GIS specification
   Discuss content and approach and finalise attributes to be recorded

Agree above as set out in draft Method Statement July 15 v1. Number of case study sites to be reviewed as pilot progresses.
Agreed – record time for survey and data input
Agreed – adapt data table to incorporate requirements of Hedgerow regulations

2.   Update on Interns and work schedules

All on track and in line with project design timetable

3.   Update on 'Perceptions of field systems'

Baseline perception study including 2 planning officer focus groups and 5 landowner meetings scheduled for w/c 27th July

4.   Update on desk-top research (historic, ecological and social)

Work commencing now. Additional archive research activities to be undertaken by Historic Environment Intern starting Oct 15

5.   Update on the geophysical and drone surveys

Pilot drone flights undertaken, further scheduled next week. Visit by Liverpool John Moores delayed. Earlye Farm agreed as a suitable candidate for geophysical survey

6.   Field systems Character Statement - Discuss approach to drafting and its outline

Agreed approach to be consistent with Historic Farmstead character statements

7.   Field systems Assessment Framework – Discuss approach to drafting and outline

Dimensions of significance to be based on HE conservation principles and further discussed by steering group

8.   Discuss timetable

No variations anticipated

9.   Any other business